

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a very disturbing demonstration of the politicization of the media and of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest -- not the owners' political leanings. I believe Sinclair's blatant use of their licenses to support their favored candidates demands FCC attention and immediate action.

Thank you.